ORIOLE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, INC MEMBERSHIP FORM

The Oriole Historical Society, Inc., is a 501(C)(3) Non-Profit Organization. OHS was founded in 1989 to preserve and recognize the contributions of 19th Century African-American Builders, waterman and de-scendants of the community of Oriole and Somerset County, Maryland.

Maryland Historical Trust and The Somerset County Historical Trust assisted the The Oriole Historical Society, Inc. in the First Phase in the renovation of St James Methodist Episcopal Church.

OHS desires to form partnerships with visionaries, historical, and educational experts to advance and to protect antiquities developed by Somerset County African-Americans for the future generations through preservation, stewardship and fundraising activities.

Join OHS today to help preserve the African-American culture of the Oriole, Maryland Community.

OHS wishes to revive the Oriole Camp Meeting

- tradition. St. James Church, a 158-year-old structure, formerly housed the Eastern Shore's largest revivals.
- Located at the intersection of Oriole Rd & Champ Rd, Oriole Maryland.
- St. James Methodist Episcopal Church (S- 359) is on the National Register of Historical Places in Maryland.

Join us in our efforts to Preserve Yesterday for Today and Tomorrow.
